

Mr. Ashish Agarwal, Chairperson

Mr. Ashish Agarwal, Chairman of Sai Tirupati University, is a visionary leader dedicated to transforming educational and healthcare institutions through a steadfast commitment to academic excellence, innovation, and community service. With a specialisation in Management stream and a profound leadership philosophy that prioritizes clinical education and knowledge-driven societal development, he has been instrumental in the university's remarkable growth since its inception in 2016. Under his dynamic leadership, Sai Tirupati University has evolved into a multidisciplinary centre of higher learning, offering a wide array of undergraduate, postgraduate, and doctoral programs in fields ranging from medicine, paramedical sciences, Management and computer science to fashion technology and journalism. Mr. Agarwal has ensured official recognition from prestigious bodies like the UGC , NMC, PCI,etc., while spearheading the development of cutting-edge infrastructure including smart classrooms, advanced laboratories, and comprehensive hostel facilities. His commitment to student success is reflected in the university's high placement rate—86% with over 550 students placed—as well as in his support for student-centric initiatives that promote holistic development through clubs, cultural events, and academic enrichment programs. Passionate about research and innovation, he has fostered interdisciplinary collaborations and focused on key areas such as medical research and renewable energy. Mr. Agarwal continues to uphold the highest standards of integrity, inclusivity, and leadership, guiding Sai Tirupati University toward national prominence and societal contribution.
