1. Introduction

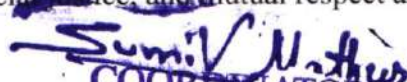

Venkateshwar Institute of Paramedical Sciences organized a two-day Equity Seminar from 3rd October 2025 to 4th October 2025 with the objective of promoting awareness and understanding of regional, linguistic, and communal equity, along with tolerance and harmony towards diverse cultures. The seminar aimed to inculcate values of inclusivity, mutual respect, and social responsibility among students and faculty members.

2. Objectives

- To create awareness about the concept and importance of equity in society.
- To promote understanding of regional, linguistic, and communal equity.
- To sensitize students towards tolerance, harmony, and cultural diversity.
- To encourage respect for different cultures, languages, and traditions.
- To foster inclusive attitudes and ethical values among future healthcare professionals.

3. Event Highlights

- The seminar commenced at 11:00 AM on 3rd October 2025 with an introductory address highlighting the significance of equity and cultural harmony in educational and healthcare institutions.
- Mr. Piyush Sharma delivered an insightful session on regional and communal equity, emphasizing equal opportunities, social justice, and mutual respect among diverse communities.
