

EVENT COMPLETION REPORT

Constitution Day and 150th Jayanti of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel

Date: 26th November, 2024
Time: 12:00 PM onwards

Venue: Classroom-1, 1st floor, VIP

Organized by: Venkateshwar Institute of Pharmacy (VIP)

1. Introduction

Venkateshwar Institute of Pharmacy observed Constitution Day on 26th November 2024, commemorating the adoption of the Constitution of India, along with the celebration of the 150th birth anniversary of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, a key architect of national unity. The programme was organized as a structured academic and value-based initiative aimed at promoting constitutional awareness, civic responsibility, and national integration among students.

The Indian Constitution serves as the foundation of democratic governance, ensuring justice, equality, liberty, and fraternity. In the context of higher education, it is essential to inculcate these values among students to develop responsible, informed, and ethically conscious citizens. Recognizing this, the institute designed the programme to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of constitutional principles, rights and duties, and their relevance in contemporary society.

The inclusion of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel's Jayanti further reinforced the importance of unity, integrity, and nation-building, aligning historical perspectives with modern civic responsibilities.

2. Objectives

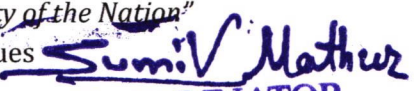

- To commemorate the adoption of the Constitution of India
- To promote awareness of constitutional values, rights, and duties
- To foster civic responsibility and democratic participation among students
- To highlight the role of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel in national unity and integration
- To integrate value-based education with academic learning

3. Event Highlights

- The programme commenced with a welcome address by Dr. Suresh Kumar Dev, emphasizing the importance of constitutional literacy in shaping responsible citizens.
- Dr. Geetanjali Sharma, Chief Guest, delivered an insightful keynote address on:
 - Evolution and structure of the Indian Constitution
 - Fundamental principles guiding democratic governance
 - Relevance of constitutional values in present-day society
- A collective reading of the Preamble was conducted, ensuring active participation from students and faculty.

Academic & Engagement Activities:

- Student presentation on "Fundamental Rights and Duties"
- Faculty talk on "Constitution in Contemporary India"
- Documentary screening on Dr. B.R. Ambedkar, followed by reflective discussion
- Screening of a film on Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel's life and contributions
- Interactive quiz competition on constitutional history and institutions

- The programme concluded with an interactive session where participants expressed their perspectives on constitutional value

4. Key Outcomes

The programme witnessed active participation from 94 students and faculty members, indicating strong engagement in value-based and civic awareness activities.

The event successfully achieved its objectives by enhancing students' understanding of the structure, significance, and guiding principles of the Indian Constitution. Participants developed greater awareness of their fundamental rights, duties, and responsibilities as citizens, contributing to informed civic behaviour.

One of the key outcomes was the strengthening of constitutional literacy and democratic awareness, enabling students to connect theoretical knowledge with real-world societal contexts. The inclusion of activities such as quizzes, presentations, and essay writing contributed to the development of critical thinking, communication skills, and analytical ability.

The celebration of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel's Jayanti further instilled values of national unity, integrity, and leadership, reinforcing the importance of collective responsibility in nation-building.

5. Conclusion

The Constitution Day and 150th Jayanti of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel celebration at Venkateshwar Institute of Pharmacy was successfully conducted and effectively fulfilled its objective of promoting constitutional awareness, civic responsibility, and national values.

The programme demonstrated that structured academic and awareness initiatives can significantly contribute to developing informed, responsible, and socially conscious citizens. The combination of expert lectures, student participation, and interactive activities ensured meaningful engagement and knowledge dissemination.

The active involvement of participants and positive response highlight the effectiveness of the programme in fostering awareness of democratic values, rights, and duties. It also reinforced the importance of integrating value-based education with professional learning.
