1. Introduction

Ganesh Chaturthi, a significant Hindu festival, was celebrated with great fervour at Venkateshwar College of Nursing on September 19, 2023. This 10-day festival commemorates the birth of Lord Ganesha, the revered remover of obstacles and God of wisdom and prosperity.

The celebrations at Venkateshwar College of Nursing began with the installation of Lord Ganesha's idol, followed by traditional rituals and puja ceremonies. Faculty members and students.

2. About Festival:

- Ganesh Sthapana: Installation of the idol, accompanied by prayers and rituals
- Shodashopachara Puja: A 16-step worship ritual
- Aarti and Bhajans: Daily singing of prayers and devotional music
- Modak Offering: Distribution of modaks, Lord Ganesha's favorite sweet

3. Objectives

- Spiritual Growth: Worshipping Lord Ganesha, the remover of obstacles, to seek blessings for wisdom, prosperity, and good fortune.
- Cultural Heritage: Preserving and promoting Indian culture and traditions.
- Community Bonding: Bringing people together, fostering unity and a sense of belonging.
- Festive Joy: Spreading happiness and positivity through music, dance, and traditional festivities.

In essence, Ganesh Chaturthi is a celebration of faith, culture, and community, marking the birth of Lord Ganesha.

4. Conclusion

The celebration culminated with the Ganesh Visarjan ceremony on September 28, 2023, marking the return of Lord Ganesha to his celestial abode. The student and faculty members of Venkateshwar College of Nursing's heartily participated in Ganesh Chaturthi celebration. However, it's likely that the college community came together to honor Lord Ganesha, fostering unity, cultural heritage, and spiritual growth.
