

EVENT COMPLETION REPORT

Sex Ratio Awareness Campaign (Rally)

Date: 5th Nov. 2025

Time: 11:00 AM

Venue: From Venkateshwar College of Nursing to Ambua Village, Umarda

Organized by: Venkateshwar College of Nursing, Umarda, Udaipur

1. Introduction

Venkateshwar College of Nursing organized a Sex Ratio Awareness Campaign on 05 NOV 2025 to promote awareness regarding gender equality and the importance of improving the sex ratio in society. This crucial social campaign was conducted in the form of a Rally, moving from the College campus to Ambua Village, Umarda. The campaign saw enthusiastic and active participation from students of the BSc Nursing 5th Semester.

2. Objectives

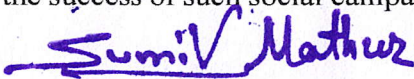

The primary objectives of the Sex Ratio Awareness Campaign were:

- To raise community awareness about the declining sex ratio and its adverse social impact.
- To promote the message of gender equality and the equal value of the girl child.
- To discourage gender-selective practices, such as female feticide.
- To encourage all participants to actively spread the message of equality and social responsibility.

3. Event Highlights

The awareness campaign was conducted as a vibrant and well-organized rally starting at 11:00 AM:

1. Assembly and Briefing: The participating students from BSc Nursing 5th Semester and faculties assembled at the college premises for a briefing on the campaign's significance.
2. Rally Commencement: The rally began from the college, with students marching along the designated route toward Ambua Village, Umarda.
3. Slogans and Placards: Students carried banners and placards with compelling messages promoting the girl child and gender equality. They chanted slogans throughout the route to maximize public attention.
4. Community Interaction: At key points in Ambua Village, students engaged with residents, explaining the importance of improving the sex ratio and fostering social responsibility.
5. Conclusion of Rally: The rally concluded successfully, reinforcing the message that cooperation and enthusiasm are vital for the success of such social campaigns.

4. Key Outcomes

- Increased Public Awareness: The rally effectively drew attention to the critical issue of sex ratio imbalance in the target community.
- Promotion of Equality: The campaign strongly promoted the message of equality and social responsibility among both participants and the public.
- Student Advocacy: The student participants gained confidence in their ability to act as social advocates, applying their knowledge to important social issues.
- Positive Image: The college's commitment to social causes was reinforced through this highly visible public campaign.

5. Conclusion

The Sex Ratio Awareness Campaign Rally on 05 NOV 2025 was a commendable effort towards social reform. The collective enthusiasm and active involvement of the BSc Nursing 5th Semester students successfully delivered a powerful and necessary message on gender equality and social responsibility to the local community. The event successfully met its objectives and reaffirmed the college's dedication to producing socially conscious healthcare professionals.
